the UN, by unidentified American reporter-place and date not given]

[Text] In response to reports and rumors saying that during the war Vietnam sent a number of American POW's to the Soviet Union, the Vietnamese ambassador to the United Nations, Trinh Xuan Lang, said: These reports and rumors are really fabrications aimed at misleading public opinion because within three months of the signing of the Paris agreement in January 1973- that is, by March 1973-Vietnam had already handed over all its POW's to the U.S. side.

..TEXT:

When asked about the role of the former Soviet Union concerning POW's in Vietnam, Trinh Xuan Lang said:

..TEXT:

[Begin video recording] [Trinh Xuan Lang, in English fading into Vietnamese translation] I think that we are completely independent in this matter and are not influenced by any foreign force. This is a matter directly related to us. The Soviet Union of course helped us a lot, but as you know, we are a sovereign country.

..TEXT:

[Reporter] Would you please let us know whether any American POW's were sent to the Soviet Union during the war?

..TEXT:

[Trinh] Absolutely none. U.S. congressmen have also had to admit that as yet they have not received any evidence of American POW's being sent to the Soviet Union. These reports should be investigated and thoroughly checked.

..TEXT:

[Reporter] So, these reports have proved to be untrue. An investigation should have been conducted a long time ago. I can not understand why we did not do it. [end recording]
